

Produced by, for and about Canadians

With more than 10,000 videos and audio assets, in English and French, our carefully curated content offers educational professionals relevant and inspiring material for all grade levels! Plus, you get access to our themes and educational guides.

Subscribe to Curio

At the best possible price through Consortia Canada!
Contact your Consortia representative today.

Renew your subscription

If you're a subscriber, renew your subscription at the same price as last year.

Know your users

As the Manager/Administrator of your institution's subscription, you'll quickly and easily be able to see what and how often your users are watching Curio with the help of our statistics modules.

Access anytime, anywhere

Easy access through proxy server and IP authentication, closed captioning, downloading MARC records, and more!

➔ About News In Review

Each edition offers fascinating reports, accompanied by teaching guides on major social issues to stimulate classroom debates.

➔ About National Geographic

This channel offers instructive findings that encourage us all to embark on a thrilling quest to better understand our world.

➔ About BBC Channel

This channel presents inspiring and challenging topics in a multitude of unique documentaries and series presented by experts.