Indigenous Content

- Voices from the Barrens, Native People, Blueberries and Sovereignty documents the wild blueberry harvest of the Wabanaki People from the USA and Canada. The film focuses on the Passamaquoddy tribe's challenge to balance blueberry hand raking traditions with the economic realities of the world market, which favor mechanical harvesting.
- Attachments of Life (Brandy Y Productions) is a documentary about how our belongings alter our lives. The film follows five Albertans with distinctive relationships with their possessions: a collector of classic cars, a senior with hoarding disorder, minimalists living in a tiny house and a woman who has lost her possessions.
- Bison: Return from the Edge of Extinction (Square Sheep Films) 10 episodes explore Bison from fur trading to conservation and its challenges.
- In Jesus' Name: Shattering the Silence of St. Anne's Residential School a poignant all-Indigenous English and Cree-English collaborative documentary film that breaks long-held silences imposed upon children who were interned at the notoriously violent St. Anne's Residential School in Fort Albany First Nation, Ontario.

LTI Functionality
