

Canadian Newsstream (Formerly Canadian Newsstand)

Canadian Newsstream provides users with unmatched access to current Canadian news content with archives as far back as the 1970s, from over 360 news sources. Newspapers including The Globe and Mail and Toronto Star along with newswires, websites, and broadcast transcripts are included in full-text format. Extensive backfiles are available for most newspapers, providing full access to the articles, columns, editorials, and features published in each.

The core of the database is ProQuest's Canadian Major Dailies, which includes national and leading regional newspapers such as The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun, and the Victoria Times Colonist, some of which are exclusively available through ProQuest.

Canadian Newsstream content is updated daily so researchers always have timely access to new information. Many newspapers are available by 8 AM U.S. Eastern time on the day they are published. There are no paywalls.

All contemporary news titles are cross searchable on the ProQuest platform allowing researchers easy access to multiple perspectives, resources, and languages on the topic they are researching. Robust searching with basic and advanced search options ensure users of all types find news articles quickly and efficiently. For example, cross search of Canadian Newsstream with Canadian Business & Current Affairs (CBCA) database on the ProQuest platform results in a powerful combination for the retrieval of relevant, topical Canadian information.

Canadian Newsstream features detailed indexing to help researchers quickly find the news information they need as well as track news events over time or at location of origin. The indexing covers complete bibliographic information as well as subjects, companies, people, products, and geographic areas. Each issue of every newspaper is indexed thoroughly, so users have access to top news stories along with detailed information on the arts, sports, business, and popular culture.

Innovative workflow tools such as RSS/alerts, cite, share, print, and export help make the research process flexible, thorough, and efficient. Many citation formats are available, and articles can be translated in 13 languages.

Value Proposition

The premier collection of the leading national and regional newspapers, Canadian Newsstream offers the most recent news content and archives that stretch back into the 1970s. It features content from newspapers, newswires, and broadcast transcripts in full-text format and is cross searchable on the ProQuest platform. Canadian Newsstream provides researchers with unmatched access to over 360 current news sources of solely Canadian content. Canadian Newsstream offers:

- Access to the national and leading regional newspapers in Canada, some of which are exclusively available through ProQuest, such as The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun and the Victoria Times Colonist. Canadian Newsstream also includes hundreds of other local, regional, and national titles from throughout Canada.

- Daily content loads for many newspapers, no paywalls, and very deep backfile with some titles dating back to the late 1970s.
- Local and regional coverage that allows researchers to track news at the geographic source, including the key national and regional newspapers that researchers need from every region of Canada.
- Cross searchability for all titles on the ProQuest platform so researchers can easily access multiple perspectives on the topic they are researching. Robust searching with basic and advanced search options help users of all types find news articles quickly and efficiently.
- Cross searchability with other ProQuest databases such as Historical Newspapers and CBCA, as well as all other databases on the ProQuest platform.
- Multiple workflow and collaboration tools such as RSS/alerts, cite, share, print, and export that help make the research process flexible, thorough, and efficient. Many citation formats are available as well as email and web page creation. Article translations are available in 13 languages, including French.

Product Features and Benefits

Best resource for Canadian major news titles

Canadian Newsstream provides the very best access to current, full-text newspapers with longer backfiles and more timely access to The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun and the Victoria Times Colonist. Titles can be searched together or separately for maximum researcher efficiency.

The most current news at your fingertips

ProQuest news content is updated each day, ensuring libraries have access to hundreds of full-text newspapers on the ProQuest platform with same day publication access to many titles.

Cross searchability that enhances researcher output

Canadian Newsstream is fully cross-searchable with other important ProQuest products including the ABI/INFORM Collection, Historical Newspapers, CBCA, and all other databases the institution accesses via the ProQuest platform giving researchers the latest news to complement their topic research.

High-quality indexing maximizes researchers' time

Canadian Newsstream's detailed indexing helps researchers quickly find the news information they need as well as track news events over time or at location of origin. The indexing covers complete bibliographic information and subjects, companies, people, products, and geographic areas. Each issue of every newspaper is indexed thoroughly, so users have access to the top news stories and also detailed information on the arts, sports, business, and popular culture.

User-friendly and precise searching experience

The ProQuest interface offers additional features for a user-friendly and precise searching experience including:

- Ability to narrow searches by date, multiple fields, and document types
- Spell check
- Abstracts for every newspaper article
- Translates articles on demand – bilingual interface
- OpenURL compliant

Canadian Major Dailies (Formerly Canadian Newsstand Major Dailies)

Canadian Major Dailies provides users with access to current content and significant archives dating back decades from more than 20 of Canada's top national and regional newspapers in full-text format. This collection includes respected and diverse newspapers such as The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun and the Victoria Times Colonist, some of which are exclusively available through ProQuest.

With same day access to many publications and limited (24-hour) embargoes, Canadian Major Dailies provides users with thorough and timely coverage of national and regional events. Many newspapers are available by 8 AM U.S. Eastern time on the day they are published. There are no paywalls.

All contemporary news titles are cross searchable on the ProQuest platform giving researchers easy access to multiple perspectives, resources, and languages on the topic they are researching. Robust searching with basic and advanced search options ensure users of all types find news articles quickly and efficiently. For example, cross search of Canadian Major Dailies with the Canadian Business & Current Affairs (CBCA) database on the ProQuest platform results in a powerful combination for the retrieval of Canadian information.

Canadian Major Dailies features detailed indexing to help researchers quickly find the news information they need as well as track news events over time or at location of origin. The indexing covers complete bibliographic information as well as subjects, companies, people, products, and geographic areas. Each issue of every newspaper is indexed thoroughly, so users have access to top news stories along with detailed information on the arts, sports, business, and popular culture.

Innovative workflow tools such as RSS/alerts, cite, share, print, and export help make the research process flexible, thorough, and efficient. Many citation formats are available, and articles can be translated in 13 languages.

Value Proposition

Canadian Major Dailies is ideal for news researchers seeking a selective collection of the leading Canadian national and regional newspapers. It offers the most recent global news content as well as archives that stretch back decades and are cross searchable on the ProQuest platform.

An essential collection of the leading national and regional news sources, Canadian Major Dailies offers the most recent Canadian news content with backfiles into the 1970s. It features full-text content from more than 20 top Canadian news sources. Canadian Major Dailies offers:

Access to the leading national and regional newspapers in Canada, some of which are exclusively available through ProQuest, such as The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun and the Victoria Times Colonist.

- Daily content loads with, at most, 24-hour embargos. There are no paywalls.
- Very deep backfile with some titles dating back as far as the 1970s and 1980s.
- Local and regional coverage that allows researchers to track news at the geographic source.

- Cross searchability for all titles on the ProQuest platform so researchers can easily access multiple perspectives on the topic they are researching. Robust searching with basic and advanced search options help users of all types find news articles quickly and efficiently.
- Cross searchability with other ProQuest databases such as ProQuest's Historical Newspapers and CBCA, as well as all other products on the ProQuest platform.
- Access to multiple workflow tools such as RSS/alerts, cite, share, print, and export which help make the research process flexible, thorough, and efficient. Many citation formats are available, as well as email and web page creation. Article translations are available across 13 languages.

Product Features and Benefits

The best resource for Canadian major news titles

Canadian Major Dailies pulls together a collection of over 20 of the top Canadian full-text news sources with significant backfiles. Users get timely access to The Globe and Mail, National Post, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Toronto Star, Regina Leader Post, Edmonton Journal, Vancouver Sun and the Victoria Times Colonist. Titles can be searched together or separately for maximum researcher efficiency.

The most current news at your fingertips

ProQuest news content is updated each day with same day publication access and limited embargo periods.

Cross searchability that enhances researcher output

Canadian Major Dailies is fully cross searchable with other important ProQuest products including the ABI/INFORM Collection, Historical Newspapers, Canadian Business & Current Affairs (CBCA) Database, and all other products your institution accesses via the ProQuest platform giving researchers the latest news to complement their topic research.

High-quality indexing to maximize researchers' time

Detailed indexing helps researchers quickly find the news information they need as well as track news events over time or at location of origin. The indexing covers complete bibliographic information and subjects, companies, people, products, and geographic areas. Each issue of every newspaper is indexed thoroughly, so users have access to top news stories and detailed information on the arts, sports, business, and popular culture.

User-friendly and precise searching experience

The ProQuest interface offers additional features for a user-friendly and precise searching experience including:

- Ability to narrow searches by date, multiple fields, and document types
- Spell check
- Abstracts for every newspaper article
- Translates articles on demand – bilingual interface
- OpenURL compliancy